MEMORANDUM FOR: Mr. Hugh Montgomery
Director of Intelligence and Research
Department of State

SUBJECT: Response to Your Request to Alert the Community of a New Requirement Regarding Third Country Transfers of US Defense
Technology

REFERENCE: State Memorandum 1703-83, 2 March 1983

1. Thank you for calling to our attention the new statutory injunction regarding the transfer of sensitive US defense technology and equipment from Third Countries (Section 163, PL 97-377) and the need to continue to monitor any losses of our technology through such countries. [redacted]

25X1

2. I asked the Chairman of the Technology Transfer Intelligence Committee (TTIC) to bring your memorandum to the attention of TTIC and its member organizations. This was done at the regular TTIC meeting on 9 March where members were urged to alert appropriate analytical and collection managers in their Departments and Agencies to this new legal provision and the continuing reporting requirement. The State Member of TTIC also spoke to the topic. [redacted]

25X1

3. You also may wish to remind NFIB principals of this new provision regarding Third Country transfers at a future NFIB meeting in order to raise their awareness of the importance of this topic. [redacted]
